Hello Beautiful!

Join us for this FREE event where we provide resources and bring awareness to the community.

I am so thrilled this event is happening! Domestic Violence is a sensitive topic and it has personally devastated me, my children and many others that I care deeply about. As soon as the event manager of Confronting Domestic Violence, Inc (a 501c3 nonprofit) put the word out, numerous people signed up immediately! Domestic Violence does not discriminate. I'm hoping you'll join us there! If you are unable to join in person, PLEASE sign up to join us virtually.
